

Victoria Helchowski

July 8, 1951 - March 27, 2026

Victoria Helchowski, 74, of Sterling Heights, MI passed away surrounded by loved ones on March 27th, 2026 after a brave battle with cancer. Vicky was born on July 8th, 1951 to Steven and Victoria Witkowski in Detroit, MI. She grew up in Hamtramk, MI as the baby sister to three brothers, Larry (Lorraine), Stephen (Barbara), and Gerry (Sue). As a young girl she was constantly seen eating cookies and was quickly nicknamed "Cookie." A nickname that would last her entire life. Vicky graduated from Hamtramck High where she met the love of her life Allen Helchowski. Allen and Vicky married a few years later on April 28th, 1973. Spending 53 wonderful years together. After high school, she dedicated her career to helping people, working as an X-ray technician for 40 years. Vicky was blessed with two sons Scott (Kimberly) and Greg (Leeanne). She was a dedicated, loving and proud mother, who was always worried about her sons. Even near the end of her life, the well being of her sons was more important than her own health. She was also the proud Grammie to her five grandchildren, Haley (Fred), Dean, Lucas, Nathan, and Lily. There was nothing more important to Vicky than spending time with her grandkids and spoiling them every chance she got. She was also an avid dog lover, spending a lifetime with her favorite four legged companions Molly, Smokey, and Maggie. Vicky was also Grammie to her Grandpups Brutus, Caesar, Fritz, and Nemo. Besides her family and friends, the things that made her most happy was cheering on the Detroit Lions and Detroit Tigers. Some of her other guilty pleasures were garage sales, thrift stores, casinos, camping, White Castle,

Red Lobster, Betty Boop, Angels, Dragonflies, General Hospital, Hallmark Channel, Elvis Presley, Kenny Rogers, and Motown music. Vicky was an amazing daughter, sister, wife, mother, and grandmother. The world has lost a kind soul and she will be deeply missed by everyone that knew her.

Vicky was preceded in death by her mother, father, brothers Larry and Stephen. She is survived by her husband Allen, sons Scott (Kimberly) and Greg (Leeanne), brother Gerry (Sue), Sister-In-Law Lorraine, all the Grandkids, and many nieces and nephews.
