“ It's with a heavy heart that I send condolences to you all. You all know how close we were with your Mom thru the years, since back in the late 50's. If it wasn't Saturday nite poker it was a bon fire in the back yard or some other festive affair. Everyone always met at 705 Hartland. Geri and I would always call to see what she wanted from McDonalds when we were in the area. After she sold the house and I was over that way I would ride down her street and check everything over and when the house was torn down it was heart breaking. There were so many fond memories attached to that property...

Thanks Uncle Sam. Was sure a lot of fond memories. We want to thank you and Aunt Geri for all the things you did for Mom, especially in the later years when she was homebound. It meant a lot to her getting out of the house for lunch or when you guys would take her to Motorcity Casino for the day,, Take Care and see you in May.. Jeff
