“ *Cindy and family,
My heart hurts for you all. You are such a wonderful family to have such a terrible thing happen. Jim was such a good guy. Cindy, I remember when you and Jim got married. All of us older Sears girls use to think he was sooo cute and we were so jealous of you. I never told you that. He was always sooo nice. He seemed more like an extended brother to me. I am so glad that he became part of our family. You had one of the strongest marriages I have seen but the 2 of you, we all know, were made for each other. There is nothing I can say that will make you feel better. All I can say is when you need someone please call me. I'll be there for you. Love you hon and stay strong.*

“ Words can not explain how I feel. You were taken from us way too soon! I will never forget the things you taught me ever since I was a little girl! I thought of you more as a Father figure than a Brother-in-law!! Your memories will forever be in my heart+ so will the love that you gave me! Thank you so much for being such a loving person! You are in the Lords hands now. Take care of Everyone up there with you + watch over the all of us! Love ya Jayboo!!! Love Bev

“ As I sit here thinking of the up coming hunting season it's hitting me like a ton of bricks that you won't be there to fist bump me every hunt and tell me "good luck sweetheart, shoot straight and remember safety first". I am going to miss hearing what you saw and how your hunt was. I am going to miss the good talks we would have in between the hunts. At home I will miss the football and hockey talks the beer thirties and the unexpected visits. I will miss the occasional rose from your rose bushes. I will miss your " drive bys". You will continue to live on thru me as I make you proud of the things I do. I know you will smile down upon me because you gave me the never give up, work hard to play hard attitude. Till I see you again this is just a see you later and not a goodbye. I love and miss you so much 💔 May you rest in eternal peace with our Lord and Savior. May God bless your soul. Xoxoxoxo

“ God saw you getting tired. So He put His arms around you and whispered “come to me.” With tearful eyes we heard that you pass away. Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best. I'm going to miss Jim's laughter, great jokes and most of all how much of a great husband, father and grandfather he was. If I can achieve to be half the man he was I would say I'm doing a great job! See you very soon!

“ The Greatest Memory is having Jim as a friend. Whenever you needed them(Cindy to) they were there with hands open and hearts. With his warm and loving smile you always felt comfortable to be around him.
Thank -you God for such a good man ,husband , father grandfather, and friend .

we wish we had him longer
