“ I remember always drinking red pop at your house! And Christmas Eve and loving being with all the cousins and opening a can of peanuts and a fake snake sprung out! I remember how loving you were all the time and your cupping my face in your hands and saying " I love you, honey!" You were an AMAZINGLY talented artist and painter! Beautiful lady, you will be so missed

“ Oh dear Auntie Wanda! I cherish the memories; Sunday picnics at The Pinery, Faygo ice cream sodas at your home on Hull, Christmas parties...you were the perfect hostess, always giving, always taking care of your family and friends. I know you are whole again, enjoying the love of Jesus like never before. I love you, Bonnie
