William (Bill) Caiozzo, 93 of Sterling Heights, passed away February 1, 2022 with his family by his side, in hospital. He is survived by his loving wife of 65 years, Barbara (Gembic) and their children, Deborah (Frank Nash) and William (Martha).

“ I was very sad to hear of Bill's passing. My deepest condolences to his family. Bill was truly one of the "good guys" in Fuel and Exhaust systems. A fond memory among many was when Bill was working on a car for me and I was being a pest (happened rarely LOL), he would lower the car so he'd fit under it, but I couldn't. I'd hear his cackling which was my signal to hit the road. I never got angry with Bill, I learned to let him do the work because it was always done right.

RIP Wild Bill.

“ My dad enjoyed being with his family more than anything. He was proud of his grand children’s achievements, and his great grand children kept him young at heart. Recently he said to me “The hardest part of getting old is feeling like you’re not contributing.” He taught me the value of earning a dollar through hard work and saving for the future.

Lovingly,
Deb
