

William John Nagridge

June 6, 1931 - March 16, 2026

It is with heavy hearts that we share the passing of William Nagridge, who peacefully passed away on March 16, 2026. William was the beloved son of the late Nicholas and Elizabeth, and the loving husband of the late Gertrude. He was a devoted father to John (Tammie), Michael (Amy), Daniel (Nancy), and Thomas, and a proud grandfather to Cydney (Michael), Evan, Joseph, and Christopher. He was also a cherished great-grandfather to Sophie and Jack. Dear brother of five siblings and beloved uncle to many nieces and nephews. He had a love for cars and puzzles and enjoyed spending time watching television, especially Jeopardy, Wheel of Fortune, and the Weather Channel. A passionate sports fan, he cheered for all the Detroit teams and was well known for his great sense of humor and talent for telling jokes. William also cherished his time in Florida, particularly visits to the Jetty and Venice Beach. He always looked forward to breakfast with his friends, a simple joy he truly treasured. Above all, William was a loving and caring person who valued his family and friendships deeply. He will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.

“ I am saddened to hear of your loss. Your family is family to us. Growing up next door to you all was certainly a blessing. Your dad always had a joke to share or a story to tell. I do remember the fence conversations with your dad or seeing my dad chatting it up with him too. Reunited with your mom (who was sooo sweet) is a happy moment, I'm sure.

Thank you for sharing your dad with us all. I'm happy that I gained another set of brothers growing up on El Capitan. May the Lord wrap His loving arms around you all. Hugs and prayers to you all.

Rest easy, Mr. Nagridge.

“I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, and I have remained faithful.”

“ We were next door neighbors to the Nagridges. When we first moved in, they welcomed us with open arms! Mr. Nagridge was always full of joy, and he and my Dad would chat at the fence about life, the neighborhood and the garden. We quickly became friends with his boys which ultimately blossomed into a life-long friendship. We consider them family. I will miss your smile and your laughter, but I'm comforted to know that there's a huge El Capitan reunion in Heaven. Say hi to my folks when you see them. This photo of you with me, my wife Marcia, and Mike was the last time I saw you. Rest in eternal peace my friend.
