“ To the family of Mr. Nellis: I hope the grief of this loss is offset by the life-lessons and love that I'm sure he brought to the table on his days here on earth. I only know him through the character of one of his sons, but it seems clear to me he was a man full of love, compassion and the desire to leave things better than the way he found them. God bless.

“ To all Bill's family & friends.

*This loss affects all of us so very much.
I want to pay tribute to this wonderful guy, who was an outstanding gentleman, husband, father, grandfather and great friend!*

Luv ya Bill
