“ Very polite and nice guy. I still remember him taking walks during breaks, and us saying 'hello' as we passed each other, with occassional comments about the weather. I will miss him. ”

“ Still in shock! Bill you were an awesome teammate and co-worker. Our Ford Family will not be the same without you! I remember us laughing together because we shared the same birthday in the same year! I will always treasure our coffee breaks chit chats and our conversations about polish food!
Rest in peace Bill!

“ Bill was a very good friend and although I only saw him a couple times a year it was instantly like old times. Beginning with the times we shared with the Lundy Boys at Aerospace. But I will especially cherish the Knights of Columbus Golf outings and bowling tournaments we did together. They will never be the same without him. I will miss him deeply. Rest in peace Bill, may we meet again.

Hi Larry. I went to NIT with Bill and we hung out for awhile after graduating from NIT.
I just found out about this.
I had lost contact with him.
Do you know what he passed away from?

“Wow...still in shock. "Dollar Bill" came into my life thanks to my husband Larry O'Reilly and the great friendship they had after being co-workers at Ford Aerospace. I loved his gentle yet fun-loving spirit. Shy, but slick! I looked forward to seeing him (although still in my jammies) every year when he'd come to the house at 6am to leave for the annual K of C golf outing. I was sure I was going to find the perfect, nice, deserving Polish girl for him...somebody missed out :(. I will miss his infectious smile, laugh and knock at the door every year...RIP Dollar Bill!

“Bill and I worked together at Ford Aerospace, Loral, and Lockheed Martin for about 11 years. Bill was a great friend who knew how to have fun. We golfed, played a little softball and bowling (really bad on my part). Below are a few pictures from when we attended the first game of the Tigers World Series in 2006.

The tickets were expensive and the Tigers lost but I am so glad we got together. Pretty much spent the whole afternoon checking out the sites and fun and then the game.

I will miss him.
