“ I think it was about 1968 when we first met Bill and Lulu, we were neighbors. We boated, together, raised our kids together, can jelly together, fished together, laughed and cried together and have been forever friends. Our memories are endless. Bill and Lulu had a challenge on Fridays, whoever said TGIF first in the morning was responsible for appetizers and drinks that night after work. Lulu let Bill win a lot! And Bill adored his charming, talented wife. You will be missed, but Lulu will be waiting.

“ *We didn't meet Bill when we moved to Michigan, but we heard some stories from Art & Maria. Later we met son Steve and his wife at cards. We finally met Bill in Ft.Meyers and enjoyed his company a few times there.

Rest in Peace Bill
